

Student Success Coach Job Description

As a Coaching4Change (C4C) Student Success Coach, you will work with a team of peers and professional educators to mentor and support K-12 students enrolled in school at one of our local district partners. C4C has full school-day, half-day, and after-school opportunities available. All C4C placements are supervised, coached, and mentored by a school staff member, while working directly with students.

As a C4C Student Success Coach, you will:

- Support students in the areas of: academics, social-emotional learning/behavior, and/or attendance
- Build rapport with a consistent group of students to deepen their connection to school
- Lead 1:1 or small group instruction with students
- Support essential parts of the school day such as lunch, recess, or enrichment time
- Work with teachers and other mentors to develop ways to best support students

Requirements:

- Enrolled undergraduate or graduate student in good academic standing
- Positive attitude/growth mindset (willing to reflect, improve, and be coached)
- Preferred to have strong problem-solving skills to improve services day-to-day
- Needs strong interpersonal communication skills (interacting with professionals, peers, families, and students)
- This position is a full year commitment (Fall & Spring semesters)

We have positions open for the following locations:

- | | | |
|------------------|-------------------|------------------|
| ★ Brockton, MA | ★ New Bedford, MA | ★ Bristol, RI |
| ★ Fall River, MA | ★ Taunton, MA | ★ Providence, RI |

Compensation

Starting pay rates: Massachusetts: $15.00 Rhode Island $16.00

This is a seasonal, part-time position designed for college students seeking a hands-on, internship experience. May also qualify for internship hours, college credit, or Federal Work-Study (at select partner Universities).

Application Link

<https://coaching4change.tfaforms.net/3>

Have a question?

Please contact our Recruitment Team, Recruitment@c4cinc.org.

About Coaching4Change:

C4C mobilizes college students to serve low-income K-12 school districts, expands pathways for student success, and provides robust career and skill development for our college students. C4C recruits, trains, and places local, talented, and diverse Student Success Coaches to support school improvement initiatives aimed at increasing student engagement and improving school culture and climate. Over 60% of C4C Student Success Coaches identify as people of color, because representation in schools matters.

Coaching4Change, Inc. is an equal opportunity employer. All employment decisions are made without regard to race, color, religion, gender identity, sexual orientation, national origin, disability, age, or any other protected status, in accordance with applicable laws.

