Campus Ambassador Job Description

A Coaching4Change (C4C) Campus Ambassador represents C4C in a positive light, helping to increase brand awareness and recruitment efforts. Campus Ambassadors are expected to represent the organization's mission and values.

C4C Campus Ambassadors will primarily interact with college students and faculty on their campuses. The main responsibility is to ensure that C4C is consistently displayed and accessible at each college. As a Campus Ambassador, you will attend various social events, including tabling events, classroom presentations, and other gatherings at your school. This role also aims to enhance engagement among C4C Student Success Coaches (formally known as College Mentor). Campus Ambassadors will conduct two points of outreach during each semester (beginning and end) as check-points and offer peer support on the mentoring experience. This initiative is designed to offer new mentors a personal connection and a safe space to learn and grow.

In this position, you will report to a Program Coordinator. This job description pertains to the 2026-2027 school year.

As a C4C Campus Brand Ambassador, you will:

- Present Coaching4Change to campus classrooms
- Communicate and inform Professors, Staff, and Student Leaders about C4C.
- Connect with and present to Campus Clubs and Organizations
- Host tabling events on campus to promote C4C's Paid Student Success Coach Internship Program
- Attend scheduled campus events (ex. career fairs)
- Support Coaching4Change Events
- Communicate with Coaches to provide ongoing advice and support to Coaches, ensuring they are informed and feel comfortable with their role as Student Success Coach.
- Attend regular check-in meetings with supervisor

Qualifications:

- Must be a current actively enrolled college student in good academic standing
- Experience and desire to build strong team culture
- Organized, Self-motivated, Creative Problem-Solver, High-Energy
- Prompt communication skills
- Possesses solid presentation & leadership skills
- Must have a positive attitude/growth mindset (willing to reflect, improve, and be coached)

We have positions open for the following locations:

- Bridgewater State University
- Rhode Island College
- Roger Williams University
- Stonehill College
- UMass Dartmouth

Program Length: September 1st, 2026 - May 7th, 2027.
